

ANNOUNCEMENT.

For Appellate Judge.
To the Republicans of the Seventh Appellate District of Kentucky: I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this district, subject to your action.
Election November, 1905.
Resp.
Ed C. O'Leary.

THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1905.

An automobile trial is threatened, but the common people can be seen over it. The only effect it can have for them will be to prevent the reduction in price until the vehicles are within a poor man's reach.

The Steel Wire and Noll Trust is suffering from overproduction and for relief has shut down a number of factories and made a cut of ten per cent in all their prices.
Some of the evils of the trusts will correct themselves.

SENATOR HARKER, who turned the most important trick for the Republican cause, is disappointed in the ingratitudes of those for whom he wrecked his political reputation and is going to resign and move to Texas. Such is the reward of political knavery.

BACK BLAINE, disgraced children and in due time the Senator from Texas. Senator Bailey will see to it that Texas will be fully protected in spite of the fact that the ghosts of all departed lawmakers and teachers of Jeffersonian Democracy.

CINCINNATI, who suffered in the election of 1896, Congress of Pennsylvania, has been renominated for Congress by the Republicans. In the Bryan campaign Bailey was one of the conspicuous Sixteen-to-Ones and holds his present seat by Democratic votes.

PEACOCK, who as an opportunity is appreciated in other countries besides this. Forty-four Russian naval officers, including two admirals, are reported to have arrived in London, owing to irregularities in the construction department of the Russian navy and the embarassment of millions.

TEXAS is a remarkable agricultural region on now among ministers of the great Presbyterian Church for revisions of the Westminster Confession of Faith. It is not an unhealthy sign when the South more intellectual freedom on broad and liberal planes of thought.

CARL BROWN, of Cokey army notoriety, was greeted with silence enough to be heard of in chance when he proposed Admiral Brown for President on the Popular middle-of-the-road ticket at the Missouri State convention of that party. Brown is a cheerful and picturesque adventurer.

PERKINS won't stop wondering why England's border is so enlightened civilization will permit her to continue a costly and extremely bloody war, and that a conquest of the territory of the two excellently governed Boer republics will stay millions of British subjects in India are sending them shipsloads of food.

TENNESSEE, who the United States $60,000 and has a long record, just promising to pay "next Saturday." Uncle Sam is tired and is considering a hitman to take the life of "pay or perish," or "I'll take it out of your ribs." The Sultan's bank is full of the latter and he is paying or he'll be a bit afraid of a run on the bank.

On complaint of a woman that she had been swindled by a grain broker the police made a raid in Chicago and caught seventeen men in a place where they met to play whist, instead of doing the women's sphere and playing sweet.
The women were mostly middle-aged, well dressed, and dressed properly. When the "new women" arrives in full force at the goal is aiming at the whist players much like the "old men" in tricks and manners.

ADVANCE the Bryanites against Bryanism is about as effectual as singing psalms to a deaf legion.
Grover Cleveland and ex-Governor Campbell, of Ohio, one by letter and the other by speech, are denouncing Bryanism.

SEBASTIAN GALENDON, of New Hampshire, Chairman of the Pension Committee, has introduced a bill to pension Gen. Longacre.
Longacre was not a soldier, but he has been a Republican since shortly after the war.
The fate of the bill will be watched with interest and it may establish a precedent by which other Republican veterans who were also in the Confederate army may secure larger pensions.

Old Stand, Main Street.

The Gobel machine is not working in all its parts just as it used to. The Honorable Olin James had every right to expect that it would grind him out the Congressional nomination in the first district, but the Wheeler men threw the machine out of gear in the interests of the incumbent, and James has retired to his home on the American river.

The election of four Gobelites in the Louisville Federal Court for intimidating negroes from voting is a pretty good answer to the charge that the troops intimidated anybody from voting. The intimation was not exceeding ten hundreds in prison and $5,000 fine for their excessive and as election workers. Nobody could be found that had been prevented by the troops from voting.

The British nobility when they lost from the matrimonial marriage and custom of their order either take to London variety excesses or America married her fast and to a titled English lady who went on in London, but generally as married Mollie Cooke, an actress, at Reno, Nevada. His lawful spouse was not exceeding ten hundred in London when he goes home.

As expected, Judge Cantrell decided that the Gobelites presented were entitled to the State election. The Republicans have been put in a quandary. With ultimate decisions in the courts still pending the fact they had to vacate in ten days under order of the court, or go head for head in the courts, and the cases through all the courts.
The costs amount up to a large sum, and the Republicans can't afford to waste.

As the Louisiana State election the Democrats made an absurdly clean sweep, electing the Government and lost office except for Republican candidates by a majority of 13,000 out of a total vote of 74,000, elected a complete Legislature, except every parish in the State, except two, and elected every member of the Legislature, except sheriffs, four police judges and three justices of the peace. His Louisiana Governor is a Democrat.

The Boer women have solved one phase of the "woman problem." A report from British sources says a number of Boer soldiers on the front have been found in the women in men's clothes and two prisoners also were found to be women by a company of British soldiers. The Boer women are developing in a national way no doubt they would make such progress.
In the Netherlands of life as they live their own way with people.

The war revenue tax is raising more money than the Government needs, but Congress does not try to reduce it for the interest actuated will bring pressure to bear for reductions that would impair the budget system. The Government surplus can be readily disposed of, but for useful purposes, at least in the present emergency. The increasing the navy and surplus could be well spent, and with a more complete system of taxation than in most any other way.

The Franklin county grand jury made one run and returned indictments against Henry Houtley, Hol-lyer, Wilkerson, Jim Howard, Berry Howard and "Tallie Dick" Combs as principals in a conspiracy to murder "Wagon Wheel" and Charles Finley, W. H. Cotton, F. W.
Golden, Gold Powers and John L.
Powers as accessories to the same.
A second run indictments were returned against John Davis and Green Golden also as accessories.
April 20th was set for a hearing in Court of the indicted men.

The ugliest pantaloons ever worn soberly and in earnest are those baggy things fitting skin tight at the knees worn by the British of Boers and men in South Africa.
They are more comical than a clown's dress. No doubt the excesses of the Boers to "shoot them in the pants" has been a great British lesson in battle. Even Generals Roberts and Kitchener were wearing baggy pants and they could break their legs at the knees with a light stroke of a shiny stick.

The Republicans in Texas, Tennessee and Alabama are badly split, probably by the election of leaders and desire for spoils rather than by reason of principle. Some of the divisions are very wide and creditable as among Democrats over questions of profound importance though the Democratic party has a large number of leaders, who are being temporary commanding influence in the party that are as much as the Republican party. The fact that they are Tennessee as Charles C.
McKee would be a Republican for instance, Bryan, Alford, Till man, and late the bill will be watched
a precedent by which other Republican veterans who were also in
ger pensions.

It is reported from Rio Janeiro that three Southern states of Brazil inhabited exclusively by Germans, and embracing a territory larger than Germany, are arming and preparing to secede from Brazil and form a confederacy under the protection of Germany. That will give these men pause in his imperial career in the Eastern Hemisphere and give him a job upholding the Monroe Doctrine. His German blonding Billy's movies are pretty well matched, and the German is hoping to try his science against Coke's aeroplanes and his deviltry.

The British government, owing to the tide of public opinion in England, has recalled some of the officers sent to the South Africa war, and it appears to be on the point of dismissing others back home, including Gough and Buller and Warren. There seems to be a dawning consciousness in the minds of Englishmen that the theory of birth and the favoritism of the ruling elements do not insure success in the field. The Englishman is slow in learning, but he has learned. For that reason when England is in the hands of the public it will be a sure-thing.

While investigating a lot of delinquents last week we met a man from Owensville, who was born in 1894, and refused to pay but a dollar on the grounds that "he didn't get any more than the one year." He consented to be placed on the list by his name, but he refused to pay. He had been getting the paper regularly and couldn't get a "without" any more, was dead. He offered us a dollar to square the deal, but we refused, knowing the editor of the paper. There is a lot of just such fellows running loose, always wanting somebody to pay for their sins, and everybody they see. We have men right here who think all editors ought to be paid, and then their free of charge because they profess religion. The editor is $6 more than his man having lived, but should be richer in common honesty. Both the law and common honesty are against this man and others who attempt to evade a just debt or refuse to pay for what they have received. If you are getting a paper which you do not expect to pay for have it stopped and then congratulate yourself on having self-respect enough to do the right thing even when the law or somebody else doesn't compel you.
